

ROMERO SPEAKS FOR BURSUM IN PECOS COUNTRY

Enthusiastic Meeting at Santa Rosa Is Addressed by Big Guns of State Republican Campaign.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEARNED WIRE
Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 22.—An impassioned plea for the support of the Roosevelt-Poor, national and state, was made in this meeting yesterday by Seemingly Bursum of Las Vegas, candidate for the nomination for governor. His nomination of H. O. Bursum, the successful candidate for the nomination, was particularly strong. O. A. Larranaga, the vice-chancellor of Las Vegas, also spoke in defense of the administration's policies.

Other San Miguel county officers with the party were Col. M. M. Pease, John H. York, Field Ordnance Co. Blood and Chester A. Hunter.

Camping across from Las Vegas is gunsmelchers the first stop was made at Anton Chico, where the hall was crowded with a demonstrative audience. The order of speakers was Frank A. Bustos, Benito C. Hernandez, Romulo Romero, Hodin, Domingo and O. A. Larranaga. A second meeting was held late at the afternoon at Colonias.

More than fifty people were unable to secure seats at the meeting in the courthouse here last night, although the candidates did not get in in time to begin the meeting until after dark. Romero made the opening address and was followed by Bursum, Bustos, Hernandez and Larranaga. The second meeting at Anton Chico were in Spanish.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OPENS IN SANTA FE

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL
Santa Fe, Sept. 22.—Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, of Albuquerque, tonight called to order the twenty-eighth annual session of the Presbyterian synod of New Mexico, the moderator, Rev. Thomas A. Mitchell, of Silver City, being unavoidably absent.

The session organized by electing Rev. Joseph S. Russell, of Dawson, as moderator for the coming year, and Rev. Hugh Mitchell, of Deming, temporary clerk. Rev. Charles F. Darling, Ph. D., of Roswell, delivered the synodical sermon. The session was followed by the rendition of the cantata "Zion" by the choir of the First Presbyterian church under the direction of Mrs. William Faust. The ministers and delegates from the Rio Grande presbytery will get to work at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, while the synod will reconvene an hour later.

Berlin, Sept. 22 (by Wireless to Sun-Sentinel).—The official communication issued at Hungarian headquarters today reads as follows:

"Romanian front: The situation is unchanged."

"Front of Archduke Charles: In the Carpathians the Russian attacking activity has fallen off somewhat. However, south of Lake Tisza and in the district of Lubau were repulsed. The summit of Smotrich was lost again."

"Front of Prince Leopold of Hesse: On the front of General Boehm Ernelli, the artillery combat increased. East of Sonichy the enemy opposed fresh columns to our attacks. Everywhere the enemy was repulsed."

"Italian and southwestern theaters: There were no incidents of importance."
